

Information Literacy Instruction: Credit Courses at Saint Louis Community College, Meramec Campus

INFORMATION LITERACY IN MORE THAN 50 MINUTES:
Developing an Information Literacy
Course for Credit

MACRL Workshop
MOBIUS Users' Conference
June 8, 2006

LIB 101:

Introduction to Library and Online Research

 First taught in 1990

 Ongoing evolution

 Current status

 Continued positive feedback

LIB 501: Introduction to College Research and Information Literacy

🖥️ Fall 2005, Reading Proficiency
Prerequisite

🖥️ Special Problems course

🖥️ LIB 101 at slower pace and with more hands-on activities

🖥️ RDG: 030 as co-requisite

I Sure Wish That I'd Known...

- 📖 That curriculum creation can take years—give yourself plenty of time!
- 📖 To take advantage of all your liaison contacts—help can come from many areas
- 📖 Be prepared for obstacles of all sorts

...And, I Wish That I'd Had Rough Drafts of the Course Schedule

and
Course Syllabus

at the time of Proposal!

