Where do we stand?

Senate: Appropriations committee closed on HB12 today

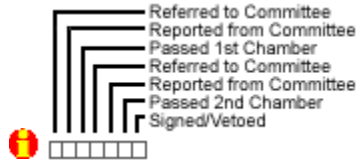

Next: Senate floor for approval

Any budget lines that are different in the House and Senate versions of the appropriations bills will go to conference committee.

The Legislature has to complete the appropriations bills by Friday, May 5.

LSTA funds for FY18 -

President Trump has released his budget proposal, and it would provide no funding for IMLS in the budget year that begins October 2017.

President's budget proposal is the first step in a long process, and advocacy is needed NOW!

Grants to States part of IMLS budget is $155 million, of which Missouri is allocated about $2.9 million annually.

Federal budget timeline:

- President submits his budget to Congress (March)
- Dear Appropriator letters sent to House Appropriations Committee (April 3)
- Dear Appropriator letters sent to Senate Appropriations Committee (late April)
- Congressional recess week of April 10 and April 17, with a goal to get as many members of the House and Senate into libraries as possible to see the work of libraries first hand.
- Continuing Resolution to fund the Government ends in April. Congress will have to vote to extend the CR or the Government will shut down
- Library Legislative Day (May 1-2): a literal measure of success for this campaign is Hill offices calling the ALA WO and asking them to tell members to stop calling
- Congressional Appropriation Hearings for the rest of the year
- Meetings on the Budget subcommittee
- Budget goes to the floor of the House
- Conference Committee between House and Senate
