

Wednesday, October 6

9:00-11:45am MLNC Breakfast and Board Meeting

Location: Granada A

11:00-12:00pm MLA Meet and Greet

Location: Valencia

Are you interested in learning more about MLA? Join current MLA committee, SIG and board members to learn more about the organization and the role you can play. Everyone is welcome to mix and mingle and enjoy some refreshments.

Sponsored by Membership Committee

1:00-2:00pm Beta Phi Mu Keynote Speaker – Author Marilyn Johnson

Location: Granada B

Author of “This Book is Overdue!” speaks about her new book and the positive role libraries play in your community.

Speaker: Marilyn Johnson

Sponsored by Beta Phi Mu

2:15-3:00pm Advanced RefWorks

Location: Madrid

A continuation of a presentation at the 2009 MLA conference, this program will demonstrate advanced features of RefWorks. Topics discussed will include RefShare, WriteNCite, and RefMobile.

Speakers: Jodie Borgerding, Joshua Lambert

Sponsored by CITSIG

2:15-3:00pm LibX Toolbar: Maximize the Use of Your Library Resources

Location: Barcelona

LibX is a Firefox add-on that provides direct access to the library’s resources through any website. Users can highlight any text on the web and find information on that text in your library’s holdings. See a demonstration and learn more about how it works.

Speaker: Judy Seibert Maseles

Sponsored by MACRL

2:15-3:00pm Beyond the ‘Flick’ and ‘Lit’: Integrated Advisory for Readers of Women’s Stories

Location: Valencia

Readers’ advisory is moving beyond the book. Learn the various appeals of the literature of women’s lives and relationships and how to suggest films, television shows, and radio programs for these same readers.

Speaker: Kaite Stover

Sponsored by RISSIG

2:15-3:00pm Finding Free Images: How to Locate and Use Images Ethically

Location: Escollo

It is easy to locate quality images on the internet. What is not so simple is determining how to use images in a fair and ethical manner. This presentation will identify sources for free images and provide information about using images ethically.

Speaker: Coleen Rose

Sponsored by MACRL

- 2:15-3:00pm New or Old: Getting Out There on the Job Market
Location: Lookout
How to approach hunting for the right position whether one is a new graduate from library school or a more seasoned librarian looking for a new opportunity.
Speakers: Neosha Mackey, Ann Riley, and Bonnie Postlewaite
Sponsored by MACRL, PEERSIG
- 2:15-3:00pm Mega Database Review: How to Have What You Want and Want What You Have
Location: Sea Chase
Webster University staff members share their method for assessing their large collection of databases in order to maximize return on investment.
Speakers: Mary Anne Erwin and Emily Scharf
Sponsored by MACRL
- 2:15-3:00pm What's Hot in Young Adult Fiction and Non-fiction
Location: Marabella A
Teen librarian and blogger Sarah Bean Thompson will present new and forthcoming teen books and tell how to keep up with new titles using book blogs.
Speaker: Sarah Bean Thompson
Sponsored by YASIG
- 2:15-3:00pm NewsBank News Personal Research Manager
Location: Terrace III
NewsBank is introducing a great new feature – the Personal Research Manager. This tool allows each user to setup their own folder within NewsBank to save searches and articles, set up email alerts and more. The instructor will demonstrate these new features and show you how to set up your own free account in NewsBank.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 3:15-4:00pm Cataloging Audiovisual Materials: Tools of the Trade
Location: Madrid
An overview of the educational, training, and reference resources that can be used when cataloging audiovisual materials. Appropriate for less experienced catalogers of AV materials.
Speaker: Amy Pennington
Sponsored by TSSIG
- 3:15-4:00pm Innovative Ways Patrons Can Ask a Librarian Using IM, Texting, Twitter, and VoIP
Location: Barcelona
Overview of using low-cost internet messaging services in library reference services. Participants will come away with new ideas for how to expand their reference services and meet the patrons where they are: online.
Speaker: Danielle Theiss-White
Sponsored by MACRL
- 3:15-4:00pm Competitive Reading
Location: Valencia
Two public librarians talk about their experience getting staff members to read more, to discuss books more, and become more comfortable with being Readers' Advisors all while trying to win valuable prizes.
Speakers: Christa van Herreweghe, Patrick Wall
Sponsored by RISSIG

- 3:15-4:00pm How Do You Get Others to Do What You Want? Leadership in the Library
Location: Escollo
A panel of three library directors from a variety of sizes and types of libraries across Missouri offer their insights on leadership and lead an audience discussion.
Speakers: Shirley Baker, Laura Rein, Steven Potter
Sponsored by PLD and MACRL
- 3:15-4:00pm Do You Have a Recipe for a Cactus Leaf?
Location: Lookout
Gloria Tibbs, UMKC Reference Librarian, posed the above question to her staff after a weekly trip to her grocery store. Learn how the answers to this question lead to the formation of UMKC University Libraries Cultural Celebrations Committee.
Speaker: Gloria Tibbs
Sponsored by MACRL
- 3:15-4:00pm Energize Your Library Board
Location: Sea Chase
Are you thinking about conducting board training? Planning for a board retreat? Help your board members carry out their role in your organization by sharing your knowledge, skills, and vision for the library's future direction.
Speaker: Tracy Rochow Byerly
Sponsored by PEERSIG, PLD
- 3:15-4:00pm Using Building Blocks in Storytime
Location: Marabella A
A brief history and description of the Missouri Building Blocks Picture Book Award. We will discuss each of the ten nominees for 2010 and provide ideas for how to use these books in storytimes.
Speaker: Ron Freeman
Sponsored by CSRT Building Block Committee
- 3:15-4:00pm Learning Express Library
Location: Terrace III
This resource is designed to help people succeed on the tests they must pass to gain citizenship, improve their testing skills or to further their education or career. Learn more about its features at this session.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 4:00-5:00pm MLA Task Force Meeting
Location: Granada B
- 5:00-6:30pm Exhibitor Reception
Join our vendors for hors d'oeuvres and drinks. Learn about the great products on display, network with peers, and say hello to old friends.
Location: Exhibit Hall
- 6:30-8:30pm MLA Divisions Dinner
Location: Granada A
Speaker: John Gillispie
Sponsored by MLA Conference Coordinators

Thursday, October 7

- 7:30-9:00am Exhibitor Breakfast
Location: Exhibit Hall
- 7:30-8:00am Committee Meetings
Budget & Finance, Location: Madrid
Public Relations, Location: Barcelona
Publications, Location: Valencia
Bylaws & Handbook, Location: Escollo
Intellectual Freedom, Location: Lookout
Legislative, Location: Sea Chase
Long Range Planning, Location: Marabella A
Membership, Location: Granada A
- 8:00-8:30am SIG Business Meetings
CIT, Location: Madrid
Tech Svs, Location: Barcelona
CIRCILL, Location: Valencia
Genealogy and Local History, Location: Escollo
Government Documents, Location: Lookout
Outreach, Location: Sea Chase
RIS, Location: Granada A
PEER, Location: Granada A
Support Staff/Paraprofessional, Location: Granada BC
- 8:00-8:45am Open Computer Lab
Location: Terrace III
Check your email and more during this open lab time.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 9:00-10:45am Poster Sessions
Location: Exhibit Hall
- Graduate Assistantships - Experience, Knowledge and More!, Katie Schneider
 - Missouri State Agency Databases, Annie Moots
 - Snapshot Day 2010: Show Me Your Library, Kathleen O'Dell
 - Digitizing Archival Materials at Missouri State University, Shannon Mawhiney
 - Using a "No Logs" Study to Improve Customer Service, Patricia Miller and Judy Pruitt
 - Popular Reading on the Move: Bookmobile Service at an Academic Library, Jodie Borgerding, Emily Scharf, and Eileen Condon
 - Reference Monkey: Collecting Reference Statistics Using Survey Monkey, Diane Hunter and Kim Cullinan
 - You Got the Job - Now What?, Vicki Gruzynski
 - E-Book Reader Petting Zoo, Christy Schink
 - To Tweet or Not to Tweet: Academic Libraries & Social Networking Sites, Melanie Church

- 9:00-9:45am UCM Technology Survey Results
Location: Madrid
A campus survey of students and faculty was conducted at the University of Central Missouri in April 2010. The study explored the uses of existing technology services and gauged interest in new technology. Learn more about the survey and its utilization.
Speaker: Alice Ruleman
Sponsored by CITSIG
- 9:00-9:45am Don't Stop Believing: Saint Louis University Libraries' Journey with CONTENTdm
Location: Barcelona
A presentation from two SLU librarians about their experiences using CONTENTdm (OCLC's digital collection management software), a program used to organize, describe, and display archival images and other collections.
Speakers: Drew and Lori Kupsky
Sponsored by TSSIG
- 9:00-9:45am Introduction to the American Community Survey
Location: Valencia
A discussion of the Census Bureau's replacement of the long form, including how its data are gathered, disseminated and should be used.
Speaker: Katina Jones
Sponsored by Gov Docs
- 9:00-9:45am Becoming a Public Library Director in Missouri: Your First Year
Location: Escollo
What will your first year as a library director be like? Learn more here.
Speakers: Margaret Conroy and Glenda Hunt
Sponsored by PLD
- 9:00-9:45am Mobile Library: What's Important and What's Practical
Location: Lookout
Is it possible to use mobile technology for library services, especially for academic libraries? Learn what works and what's essential in implementing mobile devices into your library services.
Speaker: Ying Lin
Sponsored by MACRL
- 9:00-9:45am Library Marketing Inside Out
Location: Sea Chase
A focus on practical tactics that can be employed inside as well as outside the library walls to market to customers and how these tactics align with the marketing plan strategy.
Speaker: Christina Pryor
Sponsored by PRC
- 9:00-9:45am Programming for Your Home School Community
Location: Marabella A
How can you meet the needs of homeschoolers, have a bundle of fun, and turn these families into lifelong library supporters? Join us as we discuss great and inexpensive ideas for the largest to the smallest libraries.
Speaker: Carrie Cline
Sponsored by YSD

9:00-9:45am Let the Web Do the Work with RSS

Location: Terrace III

Did you know that the RS in RSS stands for Really Simple? Continually monitoring websites for research or updates can be very time consuming. But there is a better way. Come see how to set up a simple Web 2.0 tool called an RSS reader and begin having all those sites come to you instead.

Sponsored by MOREnet

10:00-10:45am Getting Ready for RDA

Location: Madrid

Get ready for changes in cataloging rules that may happen as soon as 2011. Hear an overview of Resource Description and Access, including changes in description, new MARC fields, FRBR concepts, and the new controlled vocabularies.

Speaker: Felicity Dykas

Sponsored by TSSIG

10:00-10:45am Reference Purchasing: Buying What Your Users Will Use

Location: Barcelona

Two academic librarians and one public librarian explore the complexities of purchasing reference materials that patrons will want and use in a time of multiple formats and wildly varying pricing.

Speakers: Patricia Gregory, Deborah Katz, Patrick Wahl

Sponsored by RISSIG

10:00-10:45am Web 2.x Tools to Make You Look Cool: The Internet Strikes Back

Location: Valencia

The follow-up to the 2009's popular session on free and easily accessible web tools to enhance library service. A fun and fast-paced look at the "new" best of the web.

Speaker: Cynthia Dudenhoffer

Sponsored by MACRL

10:00-10:45am Elements of an Information Literacy Program

Location: Escollo

A discussion of the growing importance of information literacy in the academic library, its position in the general education curriculum, and providing for-credit courses in library research skills.

Speakers: Karen Robinson, Diane Hunter, Katy Smith, Jane Theissen.

Sponsored by MACRL

10:00-10:45am Biographies 'R Us: Nonfiction Reader's Advisory

Location: Lookout

Why do biographies continue to be so popular with readers? Are there different types of biographies? Come and find out what the scoop is on the perennially popular nonfiction topic.

Speaker: Lucy Lockley

Sponsored by RISSIG

- 10:00-10:45am Great Multicultural Reads for Grades 5-8
Location: Sea Chase
Identifying quality literature for young people is a time-consuming task and even harder is making sure that it presents positive cultural role models and offers diverse perspectives. Presenters will booktalk the best of the best in multicultural readers in grades 5-8.
Speakers: Cherri Jones, Dea Borneman, JB Petty
Sponsored by YSD
- 10:00-10:45am “What is an Outcome?” A Quick Peek Into the Logic Model-Based Project
Location: Marabella A
This session offers a broad brush explanation of the logic model as a key part of the grant and project planning process.
Speaker: Andy Stewart
Sponsored by PLD, MACRL
- 10:00-10:45am What’s New with Google Docs
Location: Terrace III
Join us as we preview Google Docs, look at some of the great new features and learn how to set up a Google Docs account. Then share these tools with your patrons.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 10:00-10:45am Chalk Talk with Ed Emberley
Location: Granada B
Fun and informative presentation by the 2009 Building Block winner.
Sponsored by CSRT
- 11:00-11:45am Vendor Visits
Location: Exhibit Hall
Make sure to stop by and see one of our many fine vendors.
- 12:00-1:15pm Thusnelda Schmidt Luncheon—Guest Speaker Shane Evans
Location: Granada A
Sponsored by YSD
- 1:30-3:15pm Everyone a Leader, Everyone a Change Agent
Location: Granada B
This workshop highlights several positive approaches and tools that are useful in leading, influencing, and managing change in all types of libraries, and provides an opportunity for participants to build basic skills in applying these approaches and tools.
Speakers: Leo Agnew, M. Jean Darbyshire, Keith Russell
Sponsored by MACRL
- 1:30-2:15pm Survival Archival: Archival Processing for the Clueless Librarian
Location: Madrid
Are you a librarian with an archival collection that you don’t know what to do with? A representative of Missouri Digital Heritage will present techniques for archival processing and making the materials more accessible for your patrons.
Speaker: Tricia Walker
Sponsored by TSSIG

- 1:30-2:15pm Book Groups Beyond
 Location: Valencia
 A look at forming book groups outside of the walls of your library. Corporate Lunch Hour Book Groups, Outreach Book Groups, and Community Book Groups will be discussed.
 Speaker: Kaite Stover
 Sponsored by Outreach SIG
- 1:30-2:15pm Developing the Faculty-Librarian Bond: Beyond Rank and Tenure
 Location: Escollo
 A discussion on developing relationships between university faculty and librarians.
 Speaker: Sharon McCaslin, Candice Baldwin, Sharon Bostick, Jim Pakala
 Sponsored by MACRL
- 1:30-2:15pm Google Analytics: Tracking Traffic to Your Website
 Location: Lookout
 Do you want to know if your splendidly designed web pages are seeing sufficient traffic? Stop by this session to learn how to use this free resource that tracks hits on your web pages.
 Speakers: Karen Robinson, Chris Niemeyer
 Sponsored by MARCL and CIT
- 1:30-2:15pm Missouri Open Meetings and Records Law
 Location: Sea Chase
 A presentation on Missouri's Sunshine Laws. To whom do they apply? What is a public meeting? What is a public record?
 Speaker: Tom Durkin
 Sponsored by Intellectual Freedom Committee
- 1:30-2:15pm Top 5 (or more!) Online Tools
 Location: Terrace III
 Join us for the fast-paced session as we preview as many great free online tools as we can in one hour. Be ready when your patrons ask "What's a YoLink?"
 Sponsored by MOREnet
- 1:30-3:15pm Performer's Showcase
 Location: Marabella A
- 2:30-3:15pm Table Talks
Rediscover the Classics, Jenny Ellis
Interlibrary Loan: What's Going On in Resource Sharing, Cindy Thompson
Sustainable Library Design and Operations, Sue Pruchnicki
MACRL – How Can We Serve You?, Wendy McGrane
Show Me the World: One Courier Stop at a Time, Susan Burton
Local History and Genealogy from the Front Lines, Deborah Luchenbill and the GENE SIG Officers
Collaboration and Successful Planning of Library Multi-Cultural K-16 Programs, Grace Jackson-Brown
Read More in 2011 with READMOre, Jodie Borgdering and Sara Nielsen
The ABCs of XYZs: Reaching out to 20/30-Somethings, Rebecca Clarke, Heather Cottle, Sharla Lair, Tracy Stout
Reference to Go: Public Librarians Working With Middle and High School Teachers and Librarians, Paul Steensland
Adult Books for Teens, Crystal Faris
Government Documents: Weeding for a New Era, Tammy Stewart
 Location: Exhibit Hall

- 2:30-3:15pm Positively Indispensable Resources from the United Nations
Location: Madrid
In celebration of the United Nations' 65th anniversary, learn about valuable UN resources available to you.
Speaker: Ann Fuhrman
Sponsored by Gov Docs
- 2:30-3:15pm Wolfner Library's Digital Transfer
Location: Barcelona
Learn about upcoming changes in the Wolfner Library's talking book program.
Speaker: Richard J. Smith
Sponsored by RISSIG, CITSIG
- 2:30-3:15pm The Revolution Will Be Cataloged: Re-Envisioning the Academic Library
Location: Valencia
This presentation describes the planning process and steps involved in revolutionizing the Smiley Memorial Library from the information "gatekeeping" mode into a 21st century user-centered learning space.
Speaker: Cynthia Dudenhoffer, Carrie Flaspohler
Sponsored by MACRL
- 2:30-3:15pm Show Me the Data: Turning Numbers Into Illustrations with Excel
Location: Escollo
Does numerical data sometimes make your head spin? Learn how to visually represent database usage numbers in Excel with PivotTable and PivotChart reports in ways that make it easier for non-mathematical decision makers to understand the data.
Speaker: Andrea Miller
Sponsored by TSSIG
- 2:30-3:15pm Greening Missouri's Libraries
Location: Sea Chase
Re-think library lighting, learn about improving indoor air quality and strategies for reducing utility bills. Also, find out about parking lots that store water.
Speaker: Lisa Drew-Alton
Sponsored by the Conference Planning Committee
- 2:30-3:15pm Firefox Add-ons
Location: Terrace III
Firefox, that simple little browser used to surf the web, has some incredible features and add-ons for searching and researching, as well as many other functions critical to librarians and students. Come see some of the best add-ons to beef up your Firefox functionality.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 3:15-4:15pm Vendor Visits
Location: Exhibit Hall
Come visit one of our many fine vendors.
- 4:15-5:15pm MLA Annual Business Meeting
Location: Granada B
Open to all MLA members.

- 5:15-6:45pm SISLT Reception
 Enjoy drinks and fellowship with your colleagues.
 Location: Valencia
 Sponsored by SISLT
- 7:00-9:00pm MLA Awards Banquet
 Location: Granada A
 Speaker: David Harrison
- 9:30-11:30pm Song & Story Swap
 Location: Madrid
 A casual get-together to share stories and songs, or just listen.
 Sponsored by CSRT

Friday, October 8

- 7:30-9:00am MLA All Conference Breakfast—ALA President Roberta Stevens
 Location: Granada B
 Sponsored by MLNC
- 9:00-9:45am A Race to the Top: Improving Rankings in Google Scholar
 Location: Barcelona
 Learn about Google’s recommendations for improving rankings in Google Scholar as well as our library’s experience working with Google in an attempt to raise the profile of our institutions’ papers in the search results.
 Speaker: Adrienne Brennecke
 Sponsored by MACRL, CITSIG
- 9:00-9:45am Economic Data: Positively Indispensable During a Financial Crisis
 Location: Valencia
 During the most recent financial crisis and recession, researchers and the public wanted financial and economic information to better understand current events. Learn about FRED (Federal Reserve Economic Data), a highly regarded and comprehensive source of economic data and how to use it.
 Speaker: Katrina Stierholz
 Sponsored by Gov Docs
- 9:00-9:45am The Role of the Academic Library in the Future: Perspectives From a Sabbatical Visit in the United Kingdom
 Location: Escollo
 Learn how academic libraries are changing in the United Kingdom. Emphasis will be given to how libraries are changing due to the use of technology, the emphasis on active, collaborative learning and the future role of the book.
 Speaker: Genie McKee
 Sponsored by MACRL
- 9:00-9:45am Library Services for Kids with Print Disabilities
 Location: Lookout
 Literacy is important for everyone, even kids who can’t use standard printed literary materials. Wolfner Library offers a presentation on how you can help serve your young patrons who can’t use standard printed materials.
 Speaker: Elizabeth A. Lang
 Sponsored by RISSIG, CSRT

- 9:00-9:45am E-Books: Loaning, Licensing and Listening
Location: Sea Chase
A presentation about e-book vendors, how e-books are borrowed via interlibrary loan, licensing issues, and the ramifications for libraries.
Speaker: Linda Tarantino
Sponsored by CircILL, PLD
- 9:00-9:45am Squeeze, Splash, Stomp—Wow! Sensory Learning and Literacy
Location: Marabella A
The founders of ECHO Communications explore the connection between sensory experiences and learning. Use these connections to create activities you can incorporate into storytimes to enhance early literacy and other kindergarten-readiness skills.
Speaker: Marta Gore, Laura Stephens
Sponsored by YSD
- 9:00-9:45am Open Computer Lab
Location: Terrace III
Check your email and more during this open lab time.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 10:00-10:45am Update from the Computers in Libraries 2010 Conference
Location: Madrid
Discussion of ideas culled from the Washington, DC, conference on the use of technology to enhance learning and information fluency in libraries.
Speakers: Jodie Borgerding, Gail Keutzer
Sponsored by CITSIG
- 10:00-10:45am Information and Media Freedom
Location: Barcelona
A discussion on matters of information and media freedom from the executive director of the National Freedom of Information Coalition.
Speaker: Professor Charles N. Davis
Sponsored by Intellectual Freedom Committee
- 10:00-10:45am Lighthouses, Taxation, Women’s Rights and Molasses: Finding and Using Government Documents as Primary Sources
Location: Valencia
Government documents don’t usually come to mind when searching for primary sources. Learn about print and digital resources for government documents, both free and fee-based.
Speaker: Sandy Schiefer
Sponsored by Gov Docs
- 10:00-10:45am Making It Happen—Fast!
Location: Escollo
Have a great idea, but you don’t think you can get it done at your library? Join us for some ideas on how you can work to make things happen at your library.
Speakers: Brent Husher, Cindy Thompson
Sponsored by MACRL

- 10:00-10:45am WALL-E Hits the Stacks: Implementing a Robotic System for Collection Storage and Retrieval
Location: Lookout
Which way do you turn when your library is out of space and continues to grow in both collections and users? To the non-human alternative, of course. Learn what impact a robot has on services.
Speakers: Bonnie Postlethwaite, Stuart Hinds
Sponsored by MACRL
- 10:00-10:45am Programming for the Spectrum
Location: Sea Chase
It is estimated that one of every 90 children has Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Learn about characteristics of children with ASD, challenges for their families in utilizing library services, and how children's staff can enhance the quality of library visits for all children.
Speaker: Heather Dieffenbach
Sponsored by YSD
- 10:00-10:45am Great Read-Alouds for Storytime!
Location: Marabella A
A Caldecott Committee member presents some of the top choices for storytime use. Suggested activities will be included with each book.
Speaker: Brandy Sanchez
Sponsored by CSRT
- 10:00-10:45am What We Love About Gale
Location: Terrace III
The Gale periodical research tools available through MOREnet are packed with useful features. Join us for this informational session as we demonstrate some of the MOREnet Trainer's favorite features including tracking searches with RSS feeds, using the built in dictionary, searching by publication and generating citations.
Sponsored by MOREnet
- 11:00-11:45am Leading a Science Fiction Discussion Group
Location: Madrid
The presenter will discuss the characters, plot, and themes of Starship Troopers and provide suggestions on how to lead a productive book discussion group.
Speaker: Tom Pearson
Sponsored by RISSIG
- 11:00-11:45am New Ways of Organizing Library Collections: The Topeka and Shawnee Public Library's (TSPL) Pilot Neighborhood Project
Location: Barcelona
Description and update of TSPL's reorganization project, wherein they combined a bookstore approach with a Dewey classification approach to develop a new way to organize materials in order to create a more user-friendly collection and increase circulation.
Speaker: Dawn Sanders, Jenny Ellis
Sponsored by TSSIG
- 11:00-11:45am Free Means Free: An Overview of Open Source Technologies
Location: Valencia
Want to add capability, increase flexibility, and reduce cost all at the same time? Learn about open source desktop and web-based applications, library management systems and more.
Speakers: Brent Husher, Jon Goodell
Sponsored by MACRL

11:00-11:45am Bibliographic Management Remix

Location: Escollo

See head-to-head comparisons between the latest versions of EndNote and RefWorks. Learn about Wizfolio, a program to enhance the usefulness of these products.

Speakers: Rachel Brekhus, Danielle Theiss-White

Sponsored by MACRL

11:00-11:45am More Than a Melody: Providing Graphical Subject Access to Sheet Music Covers

Location: Lookout

See how a music cataloger can effectively provide graphical subject analysis to fully present the non-verbal information from sheet music to researchers across multiple academic disciplines.

Speaker: Garth Tardy

Sponsored by TSSIG, MACRL

11:00-11:45am Summer Reading 2011: Where Will You Start?

Location: Marabella A

Get a head start on planning for the 2011 summer reading themes. Discussions will include programming, promotion, administration, and other ideas for initial implementation.

Speaker: Marge Kudrna

Sponsored by Youth Services Division

11:00-11:45am Google Forms

Location: Terrace III

Google forms can be used to create surveys, collate submitted responses and create charts from numerical data. Join us for this informational session to see some of the many ways this free online tool is being used to collect, organize, compare and structure data.

Sponsored by MOREnet

12:00-1:00pm Business Meetings

PLD, Location: Madrid

SLD, Location: Barcelona

MACRL, Location: Valencia

TFD, Location: Escollo

CSRT, Location: Lookout

YASIG, Location: Sea Chase

YSD, Location: Marabella A