Songs:
“Scary Shark”
Sung to “I’m a Little Teapot”
I’m a scary shark, just look at me.
I can be found swimming in the sea.
If I break a tooth it will grow right back,
So I don’t have to worry what to have for a snack!
I’m a scary shark, just look at me.
I can be found swimming in the sea.

“Welcome New Friends!”
Sung to “Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star”
Welcome new library friends!
I hope our friendship never ends.
Welcome (first child’s name) and (second child’s name) too
We’re so glad to be with you!
Welcome new library friends!
I hope our friendship never ends.

“Friend of Mine”
_Sung to “Mary Had a Little Lamb”_
Will you be a friend of mine,
Friend of mine, friend of mine?
Will you be a friend of mine,
And (insert action here) around with me?
[stand, sit, dance, twirl]

“The Sharks in the Sea”
_Sung to “The Wheels on the Bus”_
The sharks in the sea go chomp chomp chomp!
Chomp chomp chomp!
Chomp chomp chomp!
The sharks in the sea go chomp chomp chomp
All day long.

(The lobsters in the sea go pinch)
(The fish in the sea go swim)
(The clams in the sea open and shut)
(The octopus in the sea goes wiggle)

Activities:
Shark Paper Hand Puppet – Create your own or use the one linked below for a fun way to act out our story and use your imagination!

Shark Sensory Bottle – Take a 12-oz clear bottle, and squeeze in ½ bottle of blue glitter glue. Add some loose fine blue glitter, then fill the bottle with water. Cut out a gray foam shark using the template provided at: http://buggyandbuddy.com/shark-suncatcher
Add it to the bottle, close, and shake, creating a fun undersea sensory experience.

Shark Snack Cups – Ready for some food fun?
Full small snack cups half full with your choice of yogurt, pudding, etc.
Add a top layer of white whipped topping
Add a gummy shark on top for some Sharky fun!
