

GATEWAY AWARD

<http://www.maslonline.org/awards/books/Gateway/>

The Gateway Teen Readers Award for books written for the young adult audience was established because reading is the gateway to knowledge and lifelong learning; because the teen years are the gateway to adulthood; and because Missouri was the gateway to the Old West.

2004-2005 Winner

The Lovely Bones by Alice Sebold

2004-2005 Honor

This Lullaby by Sarah Dessen

Hanging on to Max by Margaret Bechard

2003-2004 Winner

Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants by Ann Brashares

2003-2004 Honor

Breathing Underwater by Alex Flinn

I Am Morgan Le Fay by Nancy Springer

2002-2003 Winner

Dreamland by Sarah Dessen

2002-2003 Honor

Give a Boy a Gun by Todd Strasser

The Body of Christopher Creed by Carol Plum-Ucci

Forgotten Fire by Adam Bagdasarian

2001-2002 Winner

A Walk to Remember by Nicholas Sparks

2001-2002 Honor

She Said Yes by Misty Bernal

Timeline by Michael Crichton

2000-2001 Winner

Someone Like You by Sarah Dessen

2000-2001 Honor

Life in the Fat Lane by Cherie Bennett

If You Come Softly by Jacqueline Woodson